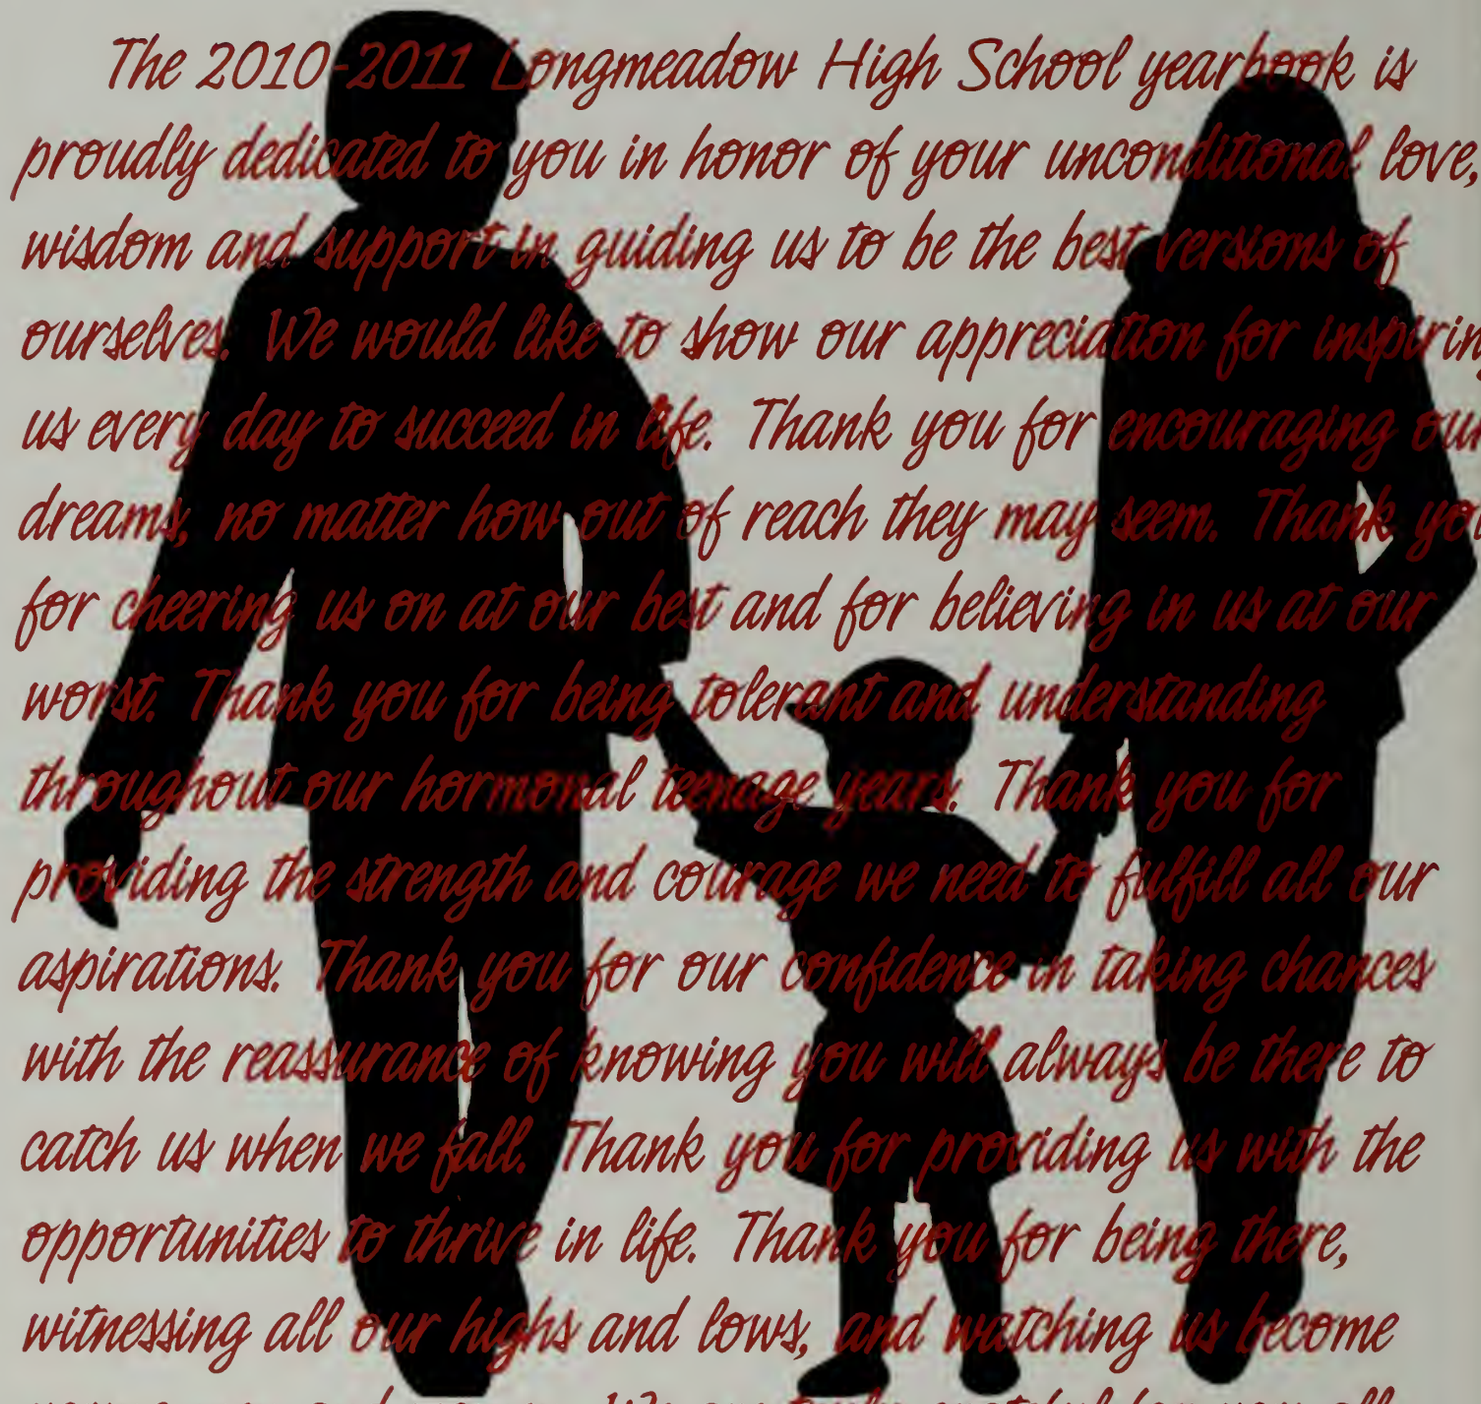
Longmeadow High School

25 Conway (Mile) Road

Longmeadow, Ma 01106

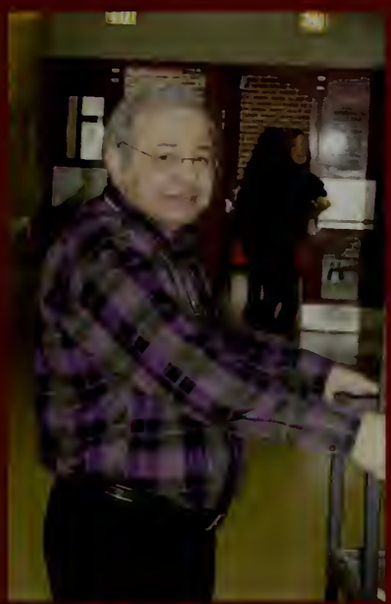
To our loving parents,

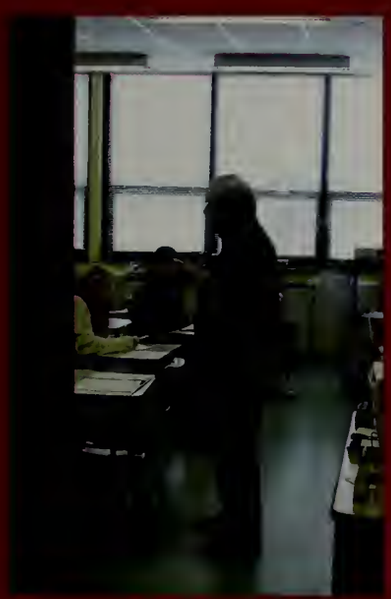


The 2010-2011 Longmeadow High School yearbook is proudly dedicated to you in honor of your unconditional love, wisdom and support in guiding us to be the best versions of ourselves. We would like to show our appreciation for inspiring us every day to succeed in life. Thank you for encouraging our dreams, no matter how out of reach they may seem. Thank you for cheering us on at our best and for believing in us at our worst. Thank you for being tolerant and understanding throughout our hormonal teenage years. Thank you for providing the strength and courage we need to fulfill all our aspirations. Thank you for our confidence in taking chances with the reassurance of knowing you will always be there to catch us when we fall. Thank you for providing us with the opportunities to thrive in life. Thank you for being there, witnessing all our highs and lows, and watching us become young men and women. We are truly grateful for you all. Thank you.

Love,
The Students of Longmeadow High School

Retirements...





The Class of 2011 wishes to recognize Mr. George Carellas for his many years of dedication to the students of LHS and to congratulate him on his retirement. Mr. Carellas is retiring as the Chairperson of the Foreign Language Department, and he has taught thousands of students over the course of more than thirty years at Longmeadow High School. Mr. Carellas has served the students in many capacities, specifically as a class advisor. Additionally, Mr. Carellas has been responsible for leading numerous trips to other countries, exposing hundreds of LHS students to the language and culture of various nations. "Jorge," as his students fondly refer to him, is known for his dedication and passion for the Spanish language and culture, as well as his great sense of humor that he has happily shared with his students over the years. The Foreign Language Department will never be the same without Mr. Carellas, and his class and sense of style will be impossible to replace. The students, faculty and staff of Longmeadow High School will miss Mr. Carellas greatly, and we wish him a happy and healthy retirement as he begins his new life.

Thank you, Jorge!

it's all good

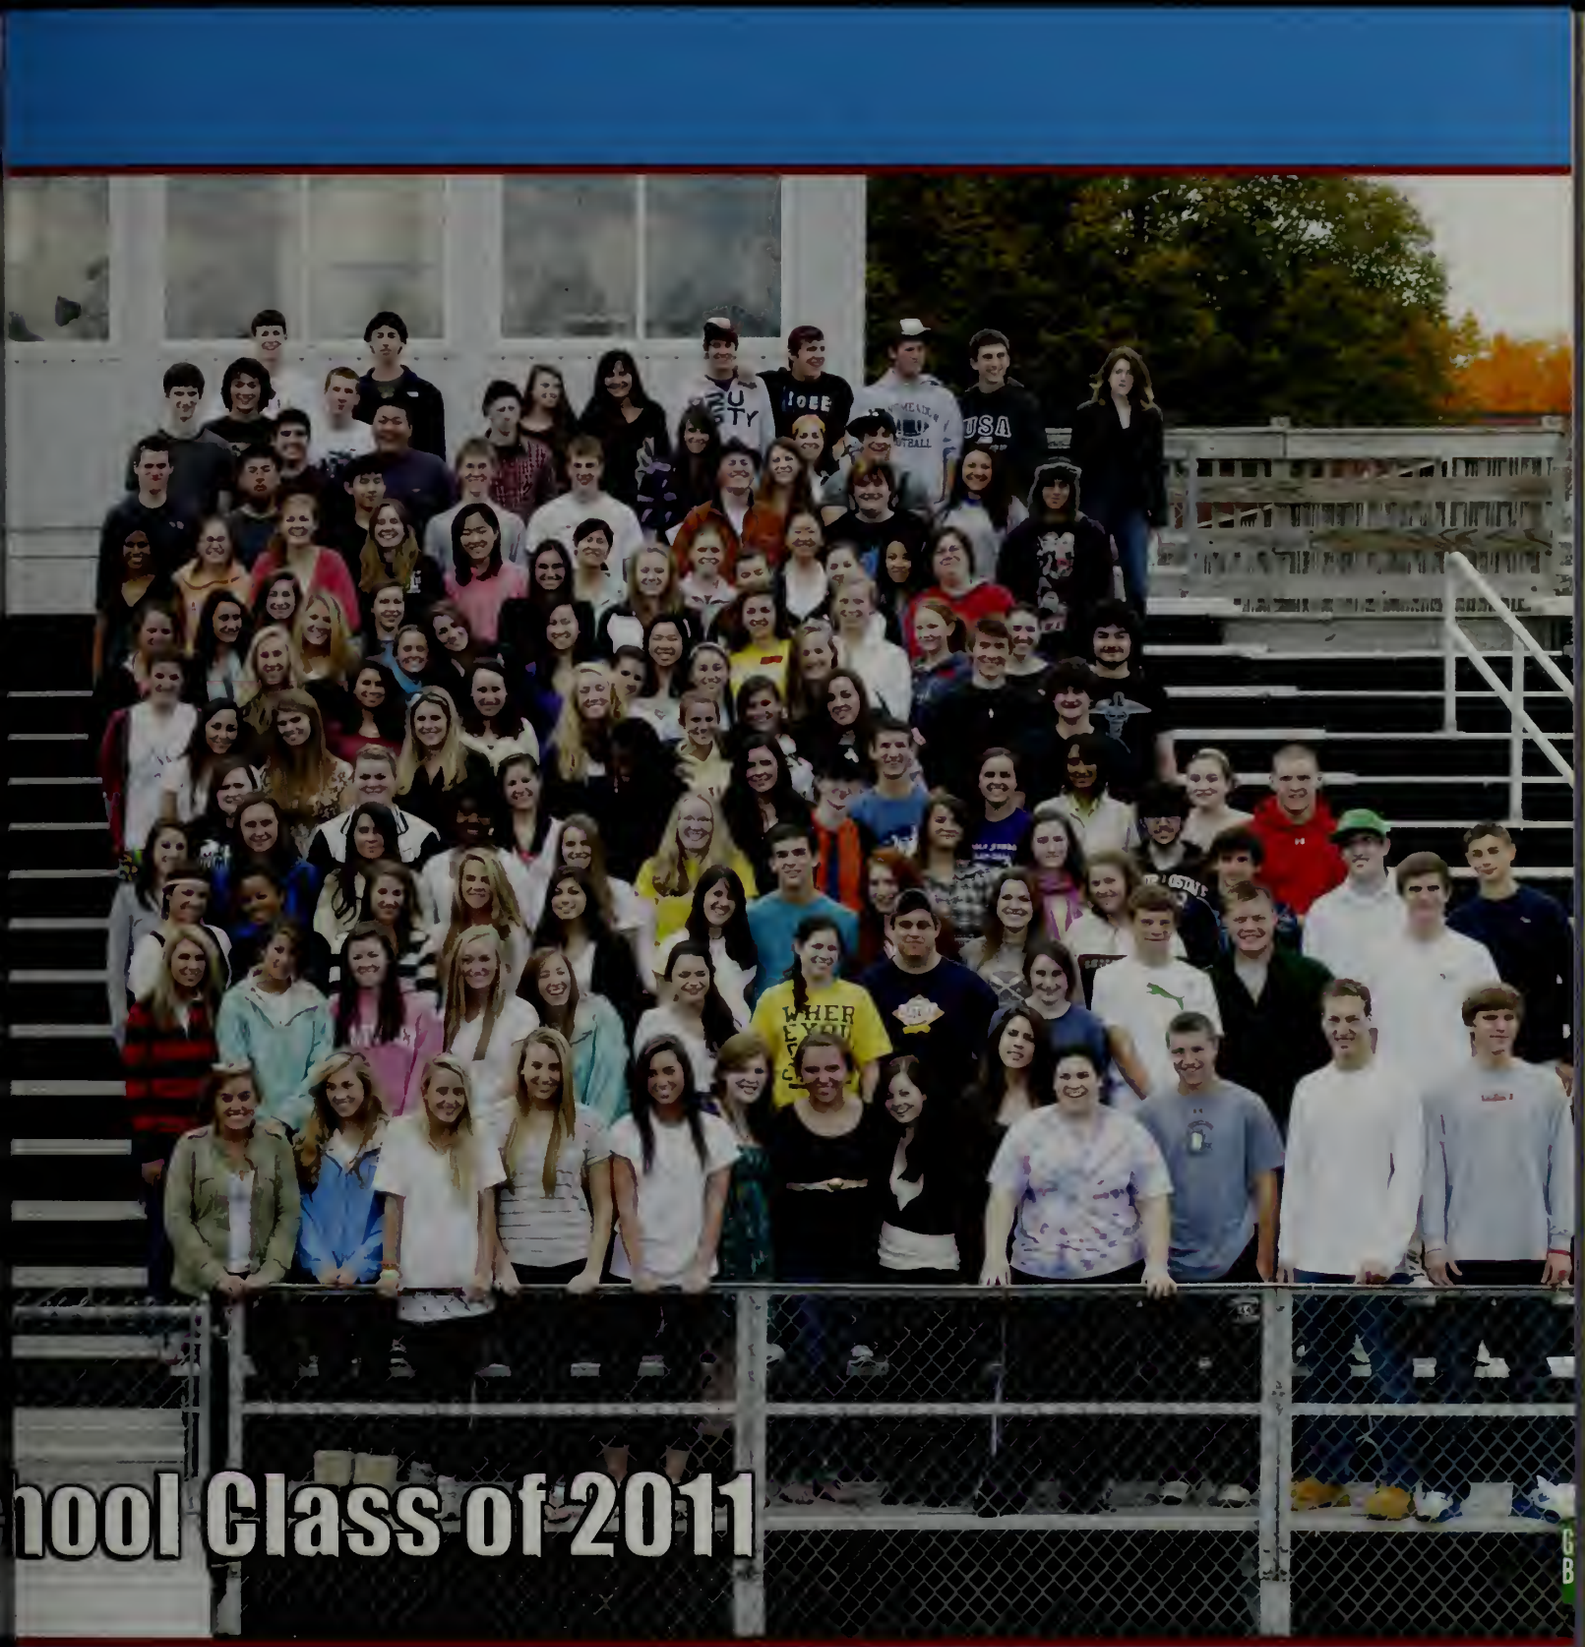
Congratulations... We DID IT!



hool Class of 2011

To the Longmeadow High School Class of 2011,

I think we all listened half-heartedly when our parents, relatives and teachers told us our high school years would be over before we knew it. We rushed through our freshman year, overwhelmed by the size of LHS, our new schoolmates and academic workload. We wanted nothing more than to become upperclassmen, to retire the freshman backpack and map of the school we all kept handy. Eventually, we got to know the members of our class, whether through academic classes, athletic teams, music programs, or clubs. The halls started to feel more welcoming as the faces surrounding us became less unfamiliar. After what felt like an eternity, freshman year was over. The seniors graduated; we saw our siblings, friends and peers finish something that seemed so new and fresh to us. As they headed off to their carefully chosen colleges, we progressed into our sophomore year. Finally, there was a new round of freshman nervously entering the halls of LHS, and we were no longer the babies of the high school.

We started sophomore year with the widely anticipated Sophomore Lock-in. The night started off with excitement and energy that slowly diminished throughout the ten hours we spent AWAKE in the school. After our first major class bonding experience, and realizing it was possible to spend an entire night with our classmates, the grade felt a bit closer knit than it had previously been. Starting mid-winter, no sophomore could escape the whisperings in anticipation of the upcoming "Semi". Soon, as the Semi approached, no one, NO ONE, could walk through the halls without hearing - "So what does your dress look like? Where are you taking pictures? Who are you going with?" It was a bit frightening, but finally the Semi arrived. After a night of dancing, we retired to our parent's minivans and headed home at the late hour of 10:30 pm. Sophomore year came to a close and we tried to keep our mind off the upcoming, dreaded, Junior year.

As we returned for our third year at Longmeadow High School, we had our first taste of seniority. We had all grown significantly since the first time we had entered the halls as nervous little freshman. By the early weeks of fall, we felt the stress and pressure from our teachers. In the early winter we headed off to the Basketball Hall of Fame for our Junior/Senior. It was exciting to be with the seniors and also, for some of us, to be able to drive ourselves a whole mile out of town. As the spring arrived, the seniors had stopped school work completely, and soon, had their last day of school. We did not hesitate to fill their spots in the cafeteria and student parking lot. With this new excitement was also a strange sensation; we now had no one older than us passing us in the hallways or sitting with us in our classes.

Finally, senior year arrived, what we all have been waiting for. We immediately launched into the production of our Senior Class Play, "Back to the 80's." Whether you were in the production, the pit, the crew, or the audience, you could feel the teamwork and spirit that went into this play. Long afternoons and evenings were spent in the auditorium, whether dancing to "Kids in America" or singing along with "Love Shack," everyone felt the same excitement and determination to put on a show that would never be forgotten. I think the outcome was more than anyone could have ever anticipated, and our class walked away with a feeling of absolute unity. Soon after the class play, the year started to pick up speed and we started to find out our plans for next year. At last, 2011 had arrived: our graduation year. We are all together, feeling the same excitement and dread, counting down the days until our graduation. Some of us have been together since kindergarten, sixth grade, or freshman year, and now, we will be leaving the comfort of our homes and school to pursue our future plans. To end this simply, we have had a great time being your class officers for the last four years; we are all proud to help guide this amazing class. We've had experiences and made friends we will never forget. We wish you all the best of luck in your futures; the last four years have truly been unforgettable.

Sincerely, Your Class Officers

This years walk was dedicated to: Conor Reynolds, Brianna Donovan, Bob Pisani, Christine DoCarmo, Maggic Camp, Harry Rea, and Jahirah Stone.

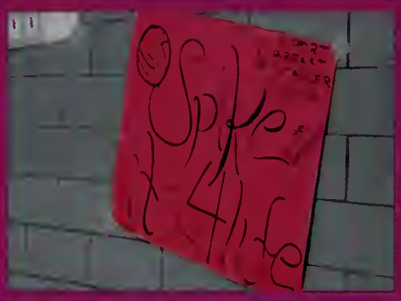
May their memories live on in our hearts.

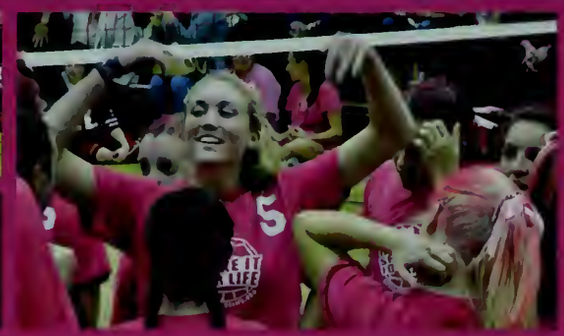
This year many LHS graduates, who were home for Thanksgiving, came by to say hello.

Stroll For Strength

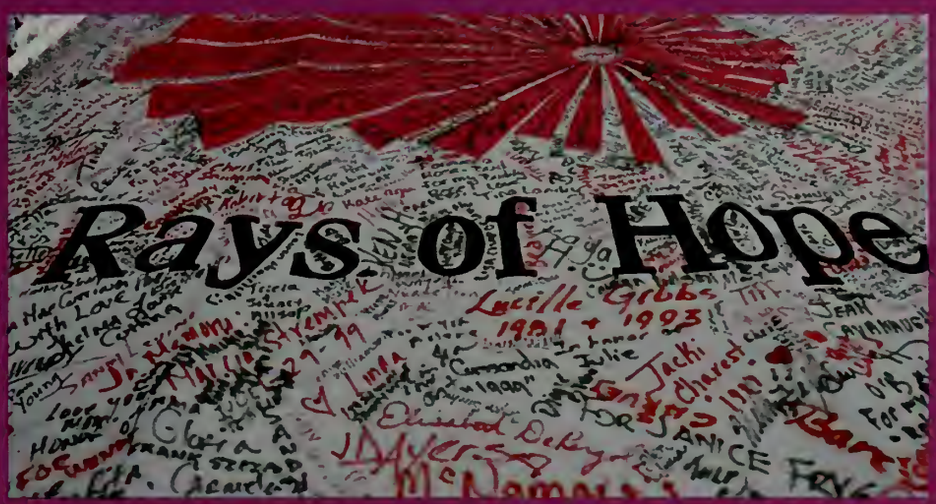
Spike It For Life

An annual fund-raiser designed to raise money for the Bay State Regional Cancer Program. LHS Girls Volleyball raised over $4,300 for the Baystate Regional Program through its Spike It For Life cancer awareness campaign.





Rays of Hope Breast Cancer Walk

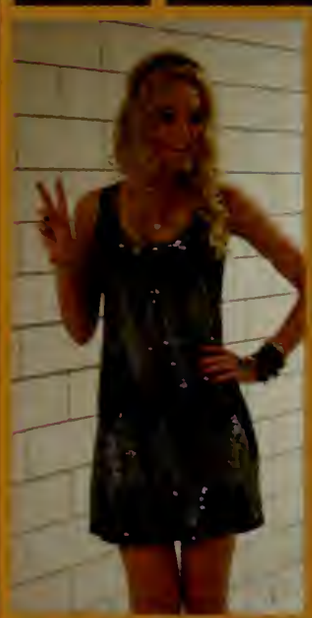


This year's Rays of Hope Walk raised $950,000.

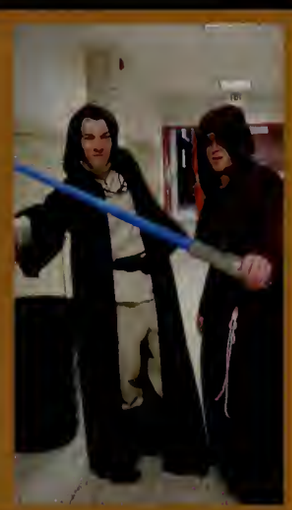
Since its start in 1994, more than $9 million dollars has been raised to help find a cure for Breast Caner.

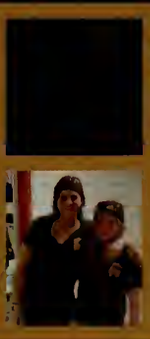
HALLOWEEN

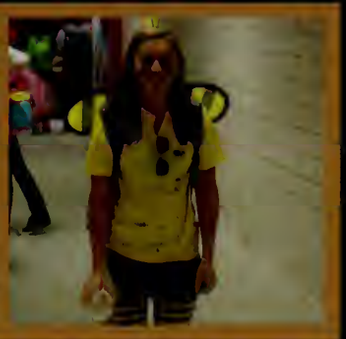
This year we had appearances from Super Mario Kart, Star Wars and even a special performance from Taylor Swift herself!



Some people think that we're too old to dress up for Halloween... Well, we proved them wrong...







Senior Class Play

Play Check List:

- Semolina's Sandwich (dinner)
- Starbucks' Coffee (caffeine)
- Homework (time killer)

"I'm forgetting something..."

"Oh yeah...my script!

Thanks to the awesome people behind the scenes: stage crew, set design, lighting and sound crew, and, of course, the pit orchestra.

Top Siders

From popped collars to Top Siders, prep style endures. True Prep shows a new generation how it's done and what it means.

Sequins

Shiny, sparkly sequins become a major fashion trend when Zoe Kravitz and runway models are spotted wearing them on hats, dresses and tops.

Hats

Self-expression is always in fashion and the right hat makes it easy to add panache (and hide a bad hair day). All you need is a cute fedora or a jaunty newsboy cap.

Military Jacket

There's nothing olive drab about this trend. Military jackets are snappy, sleek and chic — a far cry from the oversized Army surplus look of yesteryear.

Dr. Dre's Monster Beats are state-of-the-art headphones that make a strong, street-smart fashion statement. They look cool. And they sound even cooler.

Energy Drinks

Energy drinks are the beverage of choice among sleep-deprived students, despite concerns that they contain unhealthy levels of sugar and caffeine.

Mineral Makeup

Beauty mavens agree: mineral makeup rocks. These sheer, lightweight, powdery formulas are the smart alternative to gooey, pore-clogging foundations.

Pillow Pets

Now it's a stuffed animal. And now it's a pillow. Puffy, popular PillowPets™ may be the snuggliest, softest trend of the year.

Dentists report that more and more teens are asking about teeth bleaching procedures, especially for photo-op occasions like proms or sweet sixteen parties.

Flip Flops

Parents and foot doctors hate them but the flip-flop fad is a year-round phenomenon for guys and girls alike (except during snowstorms).

Get the look with a classic polo, distressed skinny jeans and leather belt with your favorite treads.

STAPLES

Vera Bradley Bags

Colorful, quilted Vera Bradley bags are the epitome of sorority sister style. Devotees mix and match Vera messenger bags, clutches, totes and wallets.

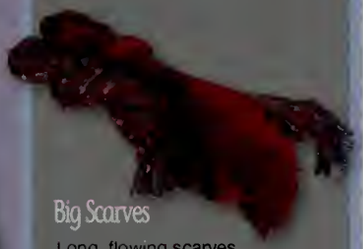
Hippie style is hip once more. Tie-dyed effects on shirts and dresses appear on runways, beaches and boardwalks.

Girls Outfit

Go for an edgy, urban look in these American Rag Twill Skinny Cargos – perfectly paired with a belted Cowl neck sweater!



Big Scarves

Long, flowing scarves become a year-round trend. This must-have accessory is the easiest way to add color and interest to casual outfits.

Monkey Slippers

It's a toy. It's a slipper. It's a fun fashion trend. Sock monkey slippers are popular in college dorms and at slumber parties.

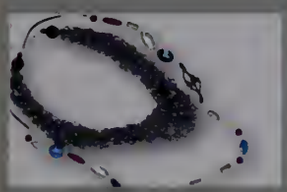
Silly Bandz

The bandz are banned! Some schools decide that Silly Bandz — the popular silicone rubber bracelets — are too distracting for the classroom.



Long Necklaces

Long, statement necklaces are trend-right. Gossip girls look luxe with Tiffany-style trinkets. Layered, chunky, vintage baubles create an alt-rock, art school vibe.

Everybody needs an afternoon snack but nobody has time for milk and cookies. The newest granola bars deliver easy energy between lunch and practice.

The mountaineer look comes to the metropolis, as high-performance outdoor apparel makes a comfortable, cold-weather fashion statement.

Over the Knee Boots

Boots go to great lengths. Over-the-knee styles are seen everywhere from runways to red carpets. Trendsetters wear them with short skirts or slim leggings.
